8 Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. 9 And behold, an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were greatly afraid. 10 Then the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which will be to all people. For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. 11 And this will be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger. 12 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying: 13 "Glory to God in the highest, And on earth peace, goodwill toward men!" 14 And when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, "Let us now go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us." 15 And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger. 16 Now when they had seen Him, they made widely known the saying which was told them concerning this Child.

The shepherds out in the field would naturally be afraid when the angels appeared before them. The very idea of the intervention of God via His angelic hosts into human presence would be especially feared because of this encounter. God is acting in Christ to banish fear, they would be especially afraid because of this encounter. God is acting in Christ to banish fear, they would be especially afraid because of this encounter. God is acting in Christ to banish fear, they would be especially afraid because of this encounter.

While the Holy Scriptures teach us that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom (Psalm 111:10), they do not teach us that it is the end of wisdom. God wants us to know He is God and is absolutely sovereign over our lives and all that is. He wants us to fear His wrath over sin but He also wants to come into a relationship of restoration and redemption. Jesus Christ is the means of establishing that relationship and on that first Christmas, He came to put an end to fear that we could not be acceptable to stand before God.

The Lord came into the world to establish and open the Kingdom of Heaven to all who would receive Him. In and through Christ, we are able to intimately know God as He establishes our peace with God!

Merry Christmas,
Pastor Jerry

Isaiah 9:6
6 For unto us a Child is born,
 Unto us a Son is given;
 And the government will be upon His shoulder.
 And His name will be called
 Wonderful, Counselor,
 Mighty God,
 Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
7 Of the increase of His government and peace
 There will be no end,
 Upon the throne of David and over His kingdom,
 To order it and establish it
 with judgment and justice
 From that time forward,
 even forever.

JOY Ministry...by Marilyn Hilton

Hopefully all is on schedule now. We have had a busy month with home visits and nursing home visits.

Robbie Swing had a meal supplied by Katie Young and Tammy Lopp. Tammy and Robbie talked about Beulah and he said he had been to visit her and she was adjusting well to the nursing home.

Ruby Tussey was visited by Angie Franklin and Jennifer Sipper at Piedmont Crossing in Thomsville. She seemed to be doing well but just watched us as we sat in her room and talked as if we were keeping her company until she fell asleep. We then went to Lexington Health Care and visited with Bertha Kepley. We really enjoyed our visit. She is such a beautiful and nice lady. She talked about her husband James. They were married and worked at Dixie. He went to school in Tennessee and came back and started the Kepley and Frank Company. Said she used to love the lake until they bought a house at Morehead. She and Angie seemed to have a special connection with each other.

Martha Seals was visited by Myrna Davis at Brookstone. Martha told of an event they had the night before with people visiting in costumes. She was looking forward to a visit with some family members later that day. She said they usually go somewhere to eat and then to Wal-Mart. She remembered that we recently. She was really feeling good.

Novelia Potts was also visited by Myrna at Brookstone. She was walking the halls with her friend so Myrna walked along with them. She said it was sure better than just sitting around all the time. She said that she was really feeling well.

Jeanne McCarn took a meal to Willa Mae Younts. Jill Hunt was supposed to go with her but Emma Grace had an ear infection. Willa Mae was very happy to see me and we spent time talking about a trip she has planned to go to her timeshare at Sugar Mountain. She seemed very excited about the trip and shared memories of previous visits. Hopefully she will get to see some snow.

Kay Padon and Barbara Strickland visited with Foy Floyd after circle meeting. They gathered the leftovers and Foy entertained them with historic stories. They learned that a healing loss does not affect your ability to talk --what fun! Foy and Davis were also visited by Kaye Sanders and Jean Plummer. Jean was heating soup that was prepared and sent by Carol Crouse to go with the meal prepared by Jean and Kay. Pastor Jerry was conversing with the men about Kay Padon and Barbara Strickland continued their day to Naomi Lackey. They found her to be a pretty and gracious lady who is feeling well and taking good care of her son.

Joyce Greer and Jean Plummer took a meal to Sylvia Hedrick after a senior citizens meeting. Naomi Lackey was invited along since she and Jean had come to the meeting together. As usual, Sylvia was sitting in the side porch. When told of the guest (Naomi) she immediately said they had gotten together several years ago and a wonderful conversation was had catching up on family and news. Sylvia also talked about her sister Roma Jean who passed away the Saturday before. For all of you --wave to her as you go by she will be on the glass porch!

Senior News...Marilyn Hilton

We started the month with a trip to Wytheville, Virginia to attend a Christmas program at the Wohlfahrt Haus Dinner Theatre. We had a great meal and a wonderful program entitled 'The Nutcracker' which was basically a comedy but the ending was a nativity scene which totally set the mood for the day. The talent was extraordinary and we all had a great time. Needless to say, food was the next agenda and we went to K&W in Winston before returning home. We had a total of 39 members and traveling companions to go on this trip.

On November 17th our regular covered dish meeting was held at the fellowship hall. Bobbie & Della Crofts and Ruth Hedrick were our hosts for the day. Everything was very festive with Thanksgiving turkeys, etc. at each table. Ruth also had made crosses for each table setting. Twenty-six were in attendance.

Margaret began the business meeting. It was decided to have a meal catered in for the December 15th meeting. The meal will be paid from the treasury and we hope all members will bring a dessert to share. Raymond & Kay Padon and Betty Jean and Peggy are our hosts and hostesses for the meeting.

It was decided to get 4 cards from D U g h c f Ñ g ' D U b h f m ' h

There are 480 people (mostly seniors) who are in need of help for Christmas. Marilyn will take care of this.

Margaret also expressed that she would not resume her tenure as president and that other names need to be brought up to begin in January, 2011.

Cards will be sent to Lloyd Burkhardt and Lori Degner.

We welcomed Robbie Swing to the meeting and hope he will become a regular member.

Jack Frank was in charge of the program. He shared a story about the mousetrap. A farmer opened a package and the mouse saw that it was a mousetrap. The mouse went to the chickens to tell them and they did not care, he went to the pigs who said that they would pray for the mouse and the cows said it did not concern them.

He farmer set the trap and the Z U f a Y f Ñ g ' k] Z Y ' \ Y U the night. She went to disarm the trap to find that a snake had been caught by the tail. In the process of releasing the snake, the snake V] h ' h \ Y ' Z U f a Y f Ñ g ' sick and was running a fever so the farmer got his hatchet to kill the chicken to make chicken soup to make his wife feel better. She got worse and the neighbors began to come over to stay with her so the farmer killed the pig to help feed the neighbors. The lady actually died and the farmer slaughtered the cow to feed everyone who attended the funeral. The moral of the story is that we are all at risk when one of us is threatened.

Jack introduced Donna Hurt. Her father died in World War II during his last flight mission before being able to return home. On 2/17/45 his plane was downed by ground lack. Six died and 4 were taken prisoner. Her father was reported missing. During the intervening years her mother wrote to the families of the four survivors trying to get information on her husband. She finally found out that he did not survive and was buried in an Italian cemetery. As Donna got older, she wanted to know about the father she had never gotten to know. Through friends and websites she was able to find out what had happened on that fateful day. She has even met the lone survivor of that plane crash and he was able to give her special information about her father and they have formed a very special bond. He had been wondering U V c i h ' h \ Y ' d] ' c h Ñ g ' Z U daughter was instrumental in getting them together. There was definitely a sign of GOD at work in this story. The moral of this one is to never give up you never know when what you want will happen.

11 Gifts...by Doug Beck

Did you know that God (through the Holy Spirit) has given each and every one of us a unique spiritual gift(s) to use in building up the church and notifying the world of the Gospel. (1 Cor 12:7)

Some weeks ago, I did an article titled "The Holy Triune God and the Church". This article, the chain of authority in Christian Churches that are ordered Biblically are organized in the following manner:

Members with recognized particular gifts of ministry

The Holy Triune God requires an explanation but the roles and responsibilities of Elders and Deacons were closely defined in and through the Bible. The fourth element of church authority was covered, it is of great importance (both spiritually and physically) of and will be explored in this article.

As Biblically inspired and active they might be, the elders, deacons cannot do it all. An active, spiritual congregation working in conjunction with the Holy Spirit is required to build and maintain even a healthy Church.

Attending church is most important but sitting in the pews for one hour a week, is not enough. This should be the goal of every Christian. The spiritual growth of each individual is definitely not adequate to maintain and physical health of the church if the congregation is the source of the Holy Spirit and cannot be recognized as just sitting in the pews for one hour.

Attending church and just listening is not enough. We must be active in the church and use our gifts to build up the church and notify the world of the Gospel.

ing up the church and notifying the world of the Gospel. (1 Cor 12:7) So, what are these gifts? The act of using our gifts to build up the church and notify the world of the Gospel. (1 Cor 12:7)

God has given all believers a unique spiritual gift(s) to use in building up the church and notifying the world of the Gospel. (1 Cor 12:7) Our gift to God is using those gifts to build up the church and notify the world of the Gospel. (1 Cor 12:7)

After Jesus ascended to Heaven, He sent the Holy Spirit to equip His church with power and spiritual gifts so that His people could continue to carry out His mission here on earth. The specific gifts are listed in 1 Corinthians 12, Roman 12, and Ephesians 4.

Every member of the Body of Christ has a unique spiritual gift(s) to use in building up the church and notifying the world of the Gospel. (1 Cor 12:7) The Holy Spirit gives us our gifts at the time we become Christians. (1 Cor 12:13)

Natural talents and personal abilities are human abilities that all of us possess to some degree or other. These talents are the same as spiritual gifts that are given to us by the Holy Spirit at the time we become Christians. While natural talent is most important, spiritual gifts are more important.

As members of the body of Christ, when we determine our spiritual gifts and apply them, we realize our function within the Body of Christ. In some cases, we may transform a natural talent into a spiritual gift. These gifts are given to believers by the Holy Spirit to enable us to serve God more effectively. Both natural talents and spiritual gifts must be employed together to make the most of our lives for the Body of Christ. A good example would be an individual who has a natural talent for singing/music. This talent should be remembered that in the church, having natural talents is not enough. We must use our gifts to build up the church and notify the world of the Gospel.

ing up the church and notifying the world of the Gospel. (1 Cor 12:7)

So, what are these gifts? The act of using our gifts to build up the church and notify the world of the Gospel. (1 Cor 12:7) Some of the gifts mentioned in Ephesians 4:11-12 include: apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers, gifts of administration, apostleship, teaching, leadership, mercy, prophecy, service, tongues, tongues interpretation, wisdom, evangelism, pastor, celibacy, hospitality, martyrdom, missionary and voluntary poverty.

At this point, several questions probably come to mind. What is the purpose of spiritual gifts? How do they contribute to the spiritual and physical growth of the body of Christ (the church)?

Spiritual gifts are seen as the key to mobilizing the members of the congregation to fulfill the mission and ministry of the body of Christ. In Romans 12:4, Paul describes the church as a body composed of many members. Then in 1 Corinthians 12:4 Paul points out that in the body, every member has a particular place or function and every member is important. This example is based on a comparison to our physical bodies in that our bodies are made up of many different members and functions and all are important to the being and overall health of the body. The body of Christ is likewise composed of many parts and parts but all parts regardless of how small, grandiose or nondescript are important and must work together as a body of believers.

As members of the body of Christ, when we determine our spiritual gifts and apply them, we realize our function within the Body of Christ. In some cases, we may transform a natural talent into a spiritual gift. These gifts are given to believers by the Holy Spirit to enable us to serve God more effectively. Both natural talents and spiritual gifts must be employed together to make the most of our lives for the Body of Christ. A good example would be an individual who has a natural talent for singing/music. This talent should be remembered that in the church, having natural talents is not enough. We must use our gifts to build up the church and notify the world of the Gospel.

As stated earlier, every Christian is a member of the body of Christ and has a role to play in building up the church and notifying the world of the Gospel.

within the body. Accordingly, every one has been given a gift that defines their role. That role might be a small part but large but regardless of size, it is life of the body.

So, yes the action of the members of the congregation plays a very important role of the church that helps the church grow spiritually and physically and is on the other hand, one that is just

What are your spiritual gifts? Have you ever wondered what gift(s) the Holy Spirit has graciously given to you? Maybe the Holy Spirit has been quietly whispering in your ear calling you to fulfill some particular role in the church but you have been ignoring that little voice. Maybe you feel that you are capable of or able to carry out what the Holy Spirit is calling you to do. But just remember that spiritual gifts are supernatural gifts that we are called to perform and at the same time we are equipped to perform. Being gifts from the Holy Spirit, the Holy Spirit will provide wisdom and strength to perform the task we are called to perform.

A prime example of the Holy Spirit providing the necessary tools to perform a task is Pastor Sanders. If you have been attentive to his sermons, he has alluded to that he had no intentions of entering the ministry for quite some time but yielding to the call. I think that all we can say is that Pastor Sanders does an exceptional job. The answer is very simple. He will tell you that he does not have the natural talent for it. You could have fooled me but remember that a spiritual gift is a supernatural gift from the Holy Spirit. Anyone answering the call of the Holy Spirit does not have the ability to perform the task. It is by faith that the Holy Spirit provides the call on our lives that the Holy Spirit provides the wisdom and strength to perform the task at hand. Pastor Sanders attests to the fact that the Holy Spirit provides the wisdom and strength to perform the task at hand.

serve as a minister of the Word.

This is an example of the spiritual gift of wisdom. 1 Peter 4:11 and the word pastor means 'to be responsible for spiritually caring for, protecting and feeding a group of believers'.

Pastor Sanders is definitely a prime example of the above definition of a pastor in the sense of the word. His speaking ability is an example of what the Holy Spirit provides to provide the tools needed to perform for the Lord.

Odell Hedrick. Over the years, he has served the church in many capacities. Most are probably not aware of how Odell works behind the scenes and makes our church service a comfortable experience.

How many times have you walked in the church in the summer and a warm blanket is needed for the winter? While the temperature has been uncomfortable due to the temperature, it is not automatic.

Odell apparently monitors the weather and does better than the weatherman; he adjusts the heat or cooling in the church accordingly.

What ever is required means that Odell has to go to church the day or night of each service and make the required adjustment to the thermostat so that the temperature will be comfortable. He will then go to the church after each service and accordingly and has been doing so for approximately forty years. Odell does not have to be asked and many times would probably have just stay at home but he simply sees the need and without fanfare takes care of it.

The next time you go to church and the winter wind is cutting across the front of the church and chills you to the bone but inside the front door it is warm and comfortable. It is just as if you were in a warm blanket.

To provide the church with a tape of the day sermons required someone to make copies of the sermons. Once copied, they are then delivered to the various members of the congregation. The shuttles are used to transport the tapes. Someone had to take responsibility for recording the tapes. Odell stepped up and took responsibility for recording and copying the tapes. Acting to fulfill a need, the Tape Ministry was formed. The Tape Ministry has advanced from a simple audio/video recording or DVD but Odell is still involved.

This might not sound like much but it all takes time and time seems to be a most difficult commodity to come by and is a major deterrent to many would be church workers. Have you ever noticed that Odell and Ruth are often the last people to leave church and are usually among the first to arrive? Most of us get upset when the worship service ends or 10 minutes past 11:30 but for years, it was just getting started.

Many other tasks or projects such as building the set for the Christmas Nativity can be added to the list of responsibilities that Odell has assumed over the year but we will see more here.

1 Peter 4:10: 'Whoever has received a gift should use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied gifts, to each other without hypocrisy or for earthly gain.'

Yes, Odell definitely possesses the spiritual gift of wisdom.

1 Peter 4:10: 'Whoever has received a gift should use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied gifts, to each other without hypocrisy or for earthly gain.' Examples stand out as prime examples of wisdom as the members of the body of Christ are called to work together as a team that is comprised of (1) the Holy Triune God (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit) as head, Godly (2) Elders and (3) Deacons as leaders and the (4) members of the church. Gifts and talents are unlimited.

Action is the key. Are you ready to give your gifts to the church? 1 Peter 4:10: 'Whoever has received a gift should use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied gifts, to each other without hypocrisy or for earthly gain.'
